

- iii. Customs Goods Declaration Forms for Export to be prepared separately for consignment of Imported/Local blended teas and the relevant Blend Number should be indicated along with the Imported component and local component of the shipment.
- iv. In case of any packet and Tea Bag consignments, packet Registration Number and description of product of teas in flavoured/unflavoured, type of tea bags/packets should be declared in the description cage.

5. EXPORT OF TEA

*Quail
packets* i. All imported teas packed for export in packets, cans, canisters, tea bags or any other retail containers or as bulk, blends, such retail container or bulk packaging should carry the narration "A Blend of Ceylon and other Origin teas packed in Sri Lanka" or "Other Origin teas packed in Sri Lanka" on the outer cover in addition to the above either Packer Reg. No. or Name of the packet on all packages according to the Sri Lanka Tea Board (Registration of Tea Packers) Regulations - 1986.

*Quail
cups* ii. No Cusdec will be authorized for the export of packets, cans, canisters, tea bags or any other containers containing Imported tea under this scheme, if they are labeled "Pure Ceylon (or Sri Lanka) Tea" packed in Ceylon (or Sri Lanka) or purport to imply this.

iii. Registration of Retail Containers

Sawal All packets, canisters, cans, tea bags or any other retail containers used for the export of teas under the above scheme should be registered with the Tea Exports Branch of Sri Lanka Tea Board in terms of the Section 15 of the Sri Lanka Tea Board (Imports & Exports) Regulations - 1981.

7. STATEMENT OF TEA EXPORTED

Sawal All exporters should furnish a statement of tea exported under each Cusdec to the Tea Exports Branch on or before 10th day of the following month by using the Form AE (Actual exports under local tea)

Sawal If there is any short shipment or shut out shipment, it has to be informed to the Tea Exports Branch with relevant details in order to adjust the stock records accordingly. (In Form IE)

Sawal It is required to declare, the Balance Stock of Tea imported under the scheme, by the registered importers annually.